

About

The RSA Schools Art Awards have been running since 1986 and are considered by teachers to be one of the most prestigious art awards for secondary school age pupils in Scotland. There is no particular theme with the emphasis on skills of technique, observation and interpretation. In particular, the judges are looking for work which displays creativity and originality. The 2025 Schools Art Awards are once again generously supported by Broodies LLP.

- Entries are submitted digitally and application is free of charge.
- The deadline for completing applications is Friday 27 March 2026, 5pm.
- An Award Ceremony will be hosted in person at Broodies LLP offices in Edinburgh in June (exact date TBC).
- A virtual exhibition showcasing winning work will be hosted in an online viewing room on the RSA website from late June (exact date TBC).

Awards

A panel of judges will award first, second and third prize in each of the following categories, with prize values ranging from £50 to £150. Additionally, Highly Commended Certificates will also be awarded in each category.

Categories:

- Junior (S1 & S2)
- Intermediate (S3 & S4)
- Senior (S5 & S6)
- Chair's Challenge (S5 & S6 only): 'The Art of the Future'

As we celebrate our bicentenary and 200 years of creativity, change and progress, we invite you to imagine what the next 200 years might hold. From this prompt, you can explore how the world may look in the future, considering ideas such as technology, AI, the environment, society, or how people connect and create together. Think about what excites, challenges or inspires you about the future, whether that is something big and bold or small and personal, realistic or imagined. Use your artwork to share your vision of what lies ahead. Prizes valued between £50 and £150.

New Entrant Awards:

- An award in each above category for the best entry from a school that has not participated within the last five years. Prizes valued between £50-£150.

Broodies Special Educational Schools Award:

- An award to recognise the exceptional creativity from SEN schools. First, second, and third prize awarded in one category: S1-S6. Prizes valued between £50-£150.

Broodies Regional Awards:

- Prizes of between £50 to £150 awarded to the best entry in each category from these regions in Scotland: north, west, and south/east.

Broodies Inspirational Art & Design Department Award:

- £1,000 award to support the most deserving and inspirational project proposed by an Art & Design Department.
- Many Art & Design Departments have huge potential but limited resources. Imagine what might be possible with an additional £1,000 in the budget?
To apply for this award, schools should submit up to 500 words explaining how the £1,000 prize will be used to undertake work that might not otherwise be funded by the local authority or the school. The Judges will be looking for details of how the prize would enhance the curriculum and department; for example, will the prize be used to introduce new art disciplines such as photography or printmaking, fund trips to exhibitions or bring in a local artist to develop pupils' creativity?
